

Description

Pump Stroke Counter

From battery-operated single-display models to powered multi-display units, we offer a variety of styles and models of pump stroke counters to accommodate any application.

Features

- Rugged design to ensure years of trouble-free service
- LCD or VFD displays available for all weather conditions
- Traditional limit switch or proximity switches available
- Can be programmed in the field with the aid of a laptop
- Power or battery-operated models available
- No display limits

Benefits

- Low maintenance and operating costs
- Can be custom built to meet various requirements
- Various models in stock for quick delivery
- Over-moulded connectors for low maintenance
- Battery life of up to two years (battery operator models only)

Specify When Ordering

- Quantity of pumps to be monitored
- Power requirements (110VAC, 220VAC or battery-operated)
- Cable length
- Proximity or limit switch sensor